Status Report:

Talked to Pieridae Energy about doing a software project for them. There's did not fit well with the project so I declined their offer.

Developed the file WeeklyReports.html as a place to store and list all of the weekly reports.

During group meetings we talked about the set up of the website and different projects that we were looking at doing. We also planned two meetings for the following week to continue first choose a project and also to begin the project plan
